Year 9 Term 1 Parent Rep Newsletter

Welcome and Introductions

Welcome parents and carers to Year 9, 2016. We would like to also welcome new families joining the Joeys community in 2016. We are looking forward to a great year under the guidance of Mick Blair (Year 9 Co-ordinator)

We have volunteered to be the Year 9 Parent Representatives for 2016. Our role is to help you enjoy your year, encourage you to meet new people and ask for your support with the various social functions and events.

Social Contact List

We would like to invite you all to be part of the Year 9 Social Contact List. It is an excellent way for parents and boys to be able to make contact out of school hours. Unfortunately due to Privacy Laws we are not able to collect this information from the College and each family must give express permission to be included on the list.

The spreadsheet will only be circulated amongst those who have agreed to the inclusion of the information.

If you would like to be included on the list please follow the attached link:

Year 9 Social Contact List

Please complete the information requested by no later than Friday 5th February. The contact list will then be distributed to those who are on the list at that date.

If you agree to provide your details, and we hope you all do, please respect the confidentiality of the information and do not misuse it for individual business or marketing purposes.

Key Dates for the Diary:

Green Highlighted Items - social activities have been organised for Year 9 parents /carers . Further details for each function will be forwarded closer to the event date.

Blue Highlighted Items – The college also organises a number events/ social activities and we thought we would include these for Term 1.
