

Father and Son Adventure Weekend

“Do you want to understand more about how to equip your son on the journey to manhood?”

“Do you want to connect with him on a deeper level?”

“Do you want to have some great fun and adventure together for a weekend?”

Sean Johns presenter for “The fathering project” and founder of “4Fathers”, works with dads and their children, guiding them in the development of strong authentic relationships.

Combine great fun with relevant information on intentional fathering. This camp is run by trained presenters and adventure guides, and located at one of NSW leading adventure camp facilities. It will be one of the highlights you will have with your son all year.

Fathers will walk away with the opportunity to

- 1) Have some great one on one time with their sons
- 2) Experience some great adventure stuff such as motor cross riding, caving, archery, canoing etc with trained guides, (no experience required)
- 3) Hear valuable information from a trained presenter on Fathering your boy towards manhood.
- 4) Mix with other fathers looking for the same things for their sons

When – 18-20 November 2016

Where – Mountain Trails Adventure School Wee Jasper NSW

For who – Fathers with sons 13 years up.

Fathering Investment
– $225 per person (for everything including activities)

Limited space

only up to 15 father son pairs
Car pooling will be organised when registrations are completed.

For more information and to register contact Sean

sean@thefatheringproject.org • 0412 582 773 • www.facebook.com/4fathers2013

Testimonials from last years camps.

“Precious one on one time spent with my son that he truly valued and some emotionally charged moments with men connecting with their sons. An enjoyable and insightful experience which I’m looking forward to participating in again with my second son”.

Thanks, Rob

---

The camp allowed my son and me to experience some outstanding outdoor activities that were really challenging. The affirmation time was special - just to have the opportunity to say he was loved, I was proud of him and he was growing into a fine man, was a time I will always remember.

Andy

---

At first I wasn't going to go as I wasn't sure if I could afford the cost, however I thought back to a times when my father took me away as a boy and felt it would probably be a good opportunity to spend time with my son.

Thing that surprised me on the camp:

- Every father and son had their own private cabin.
- The food was fantastic
- The quality of the activities and the team at Mountain Trails is top class
- Darren Lewis offered some insights into fathering my son that I hadn't thought of or ever been taught, I'll take these away with me forever.
- My son loved the fact that I had taken the time just to be with him all weekend.
- Although I sometimes have trouble communicating with my son, this weekend opened a new window into our relationship that both he and I will look back on forever.

The investment into my son's life was invaluable.

I would encourage you (your husbands or friends) to get along to this weekend.

Adam